STUDENTS CHEER THE DEFEATED HILLTOPPERS

At the annual banquet of welcome ten-dered the students by the faculty of Georgetown University, the members of the football squad were the guests honor last evening in Ryan Hall. Loud and long cheers and applause greeted the names of the men as Norton L. Lawler, president of the athletic association, commended each and every member of the squad for their valiant efforts in Saturday's unsuccessful game against Navy. The names of O'Connor, captain; Gli-roy, Maioney, Cronin and Leighty were signals for demonstrations of unusual length and vigor. Dan O'Connor in a brief speech thanked all for their loyal brief speech thanked all for their loyal support and expressed his confidence in the team's ability to make this one of its most successful seasons. ### DARTMOUTH ONE-ARMED PLAYER ON VARSITY

Hanover, Mass., Oct. 8.-Not alone has Eugene Neely, despite the handicap of having only one arm, won the position of left guard on the Dartmouth Varsity eleven, but he has also the reputation of being the best man in the green line. Neeley's home is in Dallas, Texas, and he is a member of the sophomore class at Dartmouth. Last year he made the freshman eleven, and then, through sheer persistence and grit, he gained a varsity position this year. He lost his arm five years ago in a hunting accident.
